ARTICLE 6.4 FAMILY ILLNESS

Effective January 1, 2024, the California Labor Code changed, incorporating new sick leave benefits for California employees, including but not limited to sick leave benefits for part-time intermittent employees. As such, Article 6.4 (FAMILY ILLNESS) contains outdated language that is inconsistent with California law and incorrectly states that family illness benefits do not apply to intermittent employees in MOU 07. The following bolded and underlined language in the text of Article 6.4 (FAMILY ILLNESS) below shall be removed from MOU 07.

ARTICLE 6.4 FAMILY ILLNESS

A half-time employee, as defined by in this MOU, shall qualify for and receive family illness benefits, provided, however, that pay for family illness shall be at the half-time rate. Intermittent employees, as defined by in this MOU, shall not be entitled to family illness benefits.

The aggregate number of working days allowed in any one calendar year with full pay shall not exceed 60 hours. The practice of allowance for leave for illness in the family shall be in accordance with Los Angeles Administrative Code Section 4.127 (Allowance for Leave for Illness in Family). Upon the adoption of a child, an employee will be permitted to use 60 hours of family illness sick leave. Effective January 1, 2020, employees shall be permitted to use 75% sick time for family illness only after exhausting all 100% sick time.

The definition of “immediate family” shall include the father, father-in-law, mother, mother-in-law, brother, sister, spouse, child, foster child, grandparent, grandchild, great-grandparent, great-grandchild, stepparent, and stepchild of any employee of the City, the domestic partner of the employee, a household member (any person residing in the immediate household of the employee at the time of the illness or injury), a designated person (as defined and limited to Article 6.10(B)) and the following relatives of an employee’s domestic partner: child, grandchild, mother, father.

Any employee claiming a domestic partner for purposes of this Article shall have an approved City Affidavit of Domestic Partnership form or a registered State of California Declaration of Domestic Partnership form on file in the Employee Benefits Office, Personnel Department, which identifies that individual as the employee’s domestic partner.

SALARY APPENDICES

During MOU negotiations, agreement was reached to establish a minimum wage for classifications represented in this MOU. The minimum wage adjustment rates are progressive over time. Over the life of the contract, the minimum wage increases four times. The agreed upon minimum wage adjustment rates and corresponding dates are provided for in MOU 07, Article 5.1(B)(1)-(8) (attached hereto) and are illustrated in the chart below.

MOU 07 Minimum Wage Adjustments (Before Scheduled Base Wage Adjustments)
Effective Date	Minimum Wage Amount
April 21, 2024	$20.00
October 20, 2024	$21.50
June 29, 2025	$23.00
June 28, 2026	$25.00

The Salary Appendices C-H inadvertently omitted the minimum wage adjustments. The corrected salary appendices are identified in bolded and underlined text below.
